Subject : 7TH INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE ON INNOVATIONS IN ENGINEERING, SCIENCE, AND TECHNOLOGY
(IRCIEST)

Date : May 26, 2025

This is to formally endorse the 7th International Research Conference on Innovations in Engineering, Science, and Technology (IRCIEST) organized by Batangas State University, The National Engineering University (BatStateU-TNEU). With the theme "Engineering the Future: Transformative Research for Global Advancement," the conference will take place from October 22 to 24, 2025, at BatStateU-TNEU, Pablo Borbon Campus, Rizal Avenue, Batangas City.

Now in its seventh edition, this biennial conference seeks to convene a dynamic community of researchers, academicians, industry professionals, and students from the country and around the world to explore cutting-edge advancements and emerging trends in engineering, science, and technology. IRCIEST offers a vibrant platform for sharing knowledge, research outputs, and innovative practices while fostering interdisciplinary dialogue and collaboration. This year's conference emphasizes transformative research and technological innovation that drives progress across sectors. It aims to inspire the development of new methodologies, tools, and solutions that respond to the evolving demands of the global landscape.

The organizers will be accepting structured abstract submissions until June 30, 2025. Interested presenters and participants may submit abstracts and access full conference details through the official event website: <https://irciest.batstateu.edu.ph/>.

The conference briefier is enclosed for your ready reference. For further inquiries, your office may contact Engr. Albertson D. Amante, Conference Chair, via email at irciest2025@gmail.com or mobile at 0917-562-0916.
